Proudly Present
Special Classes with Judy Zugish
March 2023

(Four 1-day, 8-hour Workshops; 12 Students Maximum; for All Levels)

Judy Zugish, basketmaker, began experimenting with cultivating fibers and using them to invent contemporary, sculptural basket forms. She gardens in the Pacific Northwest, where she grows, nurtures and collects fiber plants for her creations. A teacher since 1988, at home and abroad, she designs her classes to explore delicious natural materials, applying good techniques with a touch of the unusual - just because it's fun! To learn how Judy cultivates and prepares willow in her 40-year-old garden to make her unique pieces, you might enjoy this video interview: <https://youtu.be/U8klkTqx88k>

Registration is now open to MWGBG & LABG members; General Public registration begins January 1, 2023. Each class fee is $80, plus material/preparation fee, which includes a nice selection of prepared materials and patterns. Students can bring their own embellishments or a special piece of bark if they wish to incorporate something personal. (Tools to bring: scissors, small basin or bucket, soft measuring tape, blunt tip needle, small packing tool and an old towel; wear casual clothing.)

Make check payable to MWGBG and include a note with your name, email address, phone number, and class choice(s) and mail this to Willie Ziegler, 1120 Pepper Drive #159, El Cajon, CA, 92021. It's recommended you also send email to Willie letting her know you've mailed a check (wznvrhpn@aol.com) or if you have questions. Exact location of classes will be shared after registration is confirmed. Registration Deadline: February 11, 2023.
